

ADVALUE online Pilot Trainings

Module 2 - Transdisciplinary research

01. Oct. 2025 at 11:15 EAT: Introduction of participants - Rose Kigathi, PU

Time in EAT:
12:00 - 14:00

Topics and Lecturer

- ◆ 01. Oct. 2025 Why do we need transdisciplinary research?
 - Angelika Thomas, NGU; Brigitte Kaufmann, DITSL
- ◆ 08. Oct. 2025 Ethics in transdisciplinary research
 - Michal Lošťák, CZU
- ◆ 15. Oct. 2025 Principles of knowledge co-creation
 - Elizabeth Kizito, UCU
- ◆ 22. Oct. 2025 Gender-responsive transdisciplinary research
 - Jana Mazancová, CZU
- ◆ 29. Oct. 2025 Systems thinking
 - Teun Dekker, SLU
- ◆ 05. Nov. 2025 System approaches in agriculture
 - Rose Kigathi, PU
- ◆ 12. Nov. 2025 Introduction to African food systems
 - Elizabeth Kizito, UCU
- ▲ 19. Nov. 2025 Introduction of the basics of community-based participatory research
 - David Mfitumukiza, MAK
- ▲ 26. Nov. 2025 Applications of participatory tools in case studies
 - Raj Chongtham, SLU
- ▲ 03. Dec. 2025 Basics of communication and facilitation
 - Angelika Thomas, NGU
- ◆ ◆ ▲ ● 08. -12. Dec. 2025 In-person training at Pwani University, Kenya
 - Rose Kigathi, PU, Brigitte Kaufmann, DITSL and joint project team
- 21. Jan. 2026 Q methodology
 - Michal Lošťák, CZU; Lukas Zagata, CZU
- 28. Jan. 2026 Tools for agroecological performance evaluation (TAPE)
 - Raj Chongtham, SLU
- 04. Feb. 2026 Integration of approaches, methods, tools into transdiscipl. research projects
 - Brigitte Kaufmann, DITSL

NOTE:
access link is shared via email. Due to group size, this pilot training is only open to selected participants. Please do not share the link.

For receiving a certificate of attendance
please make sure to actively attend at least 11 of the 12 online lectures!